Tom King writes . . .

Greetings! I hope that you had a pleasant Summer and were able to find time to celebrate the blessings of good weather and good company. As we roll on into Autumn, here at St. Mary's we are looking to strengthen and develop our existing church ministries, and also have various things happening to help renew our discipleship and encourage our fellowship. On September 10, together as a church we embarked on a journey through the Gospel of Luke. We will be using this as our primary text on Sunday mornings – with appropriate breaks for festival seasons and certain other occasions – until Pentecost 2025. By working our way through the whole story, as Luke presents it, we will perhaps rediscover some less well-known corners, and together shape ourselves around Jesus and his coming Kingdom.

We are able to see this transformation take place in all the practical ministries of the church, our Tea and Coffee gatherings on Thursdays, our Ladies' Group and Craft Group, the Bumps and Babes toddler group and other family ministry such as the monthly Dad's event; also our involvement with the foodbank, the recovery project, and the local schools. All of these are where we can bless others in need by sharing the love of God that he has already shown to us, and in serving others become more like Jesus ourselves. We have also this month begun a short, three-session course on being ready to share the reasons for our faith with others, in the everyday situations of our lives. This will be repeated in the New Year for those who could not join it this month. In October we shall be offering the Bible Society 'Bible Course.' This provides an overview of the Bible and then begins to delve into how to read it well. If you have been reading the Bible for years but still have unanswered questions, or are unsure where to begin, be sure to come along. We believe, of course, as Christians, that the Bible contains all things necessary for life and faith. That is, the message conveyed through these books is one of hope, joy and God's grace to the world, seen most clearly in the person of Jesus Christ. The world in which we live can be mightily confusing, troublesome and there are many things that we could fear. Yet it is the testimony of thousands upon thousands of Christian people down the ages that God is faithful when we turn to trust him, because he loves us. The word of life held out to us in Jesus' coming among us, dying, and rising again to set us free from our fears and the sin that disfigures our world, is a sure and certain hope. I pray that over the coming months you too will have opportunity to discover how this hope is at work for you. If you would like to find out more, the details of everything mentioned above are available in our church notices, on our website or Facebook, or please contact the church office for more information.

Celebrating Harvest Home

Here in the Cathedral we begin October by hosting the National Harvest Festival, a service launched 10 years ago at Westminster Abbey by Queen Camilla, then Duchess of Cornwall. The service moves to a different city, or community every year and rather like the Olympics it includes the display of a symbolic harvest torch, and representatives from civic life and the farming community will gather in Peterborough to celebrate the gifts of creation in a tradition that will be shared by many parishes up and down the diocese.

What we think of as Harvest Festival dates back to the 1840's when the Revd Robert Hawker, Vicar of Morwenstow in Cornwall conducted a special thanksgiving service and blessed the crops that had been "safely gathered in". However, what came to be a key moment in the life of every community, has in recent decades been on the decline and the Harvest Torch is an initiative of the Love British Food campaign as part of British Food Fortnight to try and restore this tradition and to make the connections between our 'daily bread', those responsible for producing it, and the God on whose bounty we ultimately depend.

The sad truth is that, the recognition of that interdependence has become ever more tenuous and our 24/7 urbanised culture has much less sense of rhythms of the seasons and the way our food is produced and brought to our tables. So, we pray, that as Peterborough welcomes the Harvest Torch this month it might prompt us to a renewed sense of genuine thanksgiving whilst also challenging us to think through issues of sustainability and justice when it comes to producing our food and ensuring that none go hungry.

For a faith which has a meal as its central act of worship, we of all people, should never forget the deep connection between God our Creator and Redeemer and the need for our active participation in that relationship. As one of our Offertory prayers reminds us:

Blessed are you Lord God of all creation; through your goodness we have this bread to set before you, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life.

Love British Food

Enjoy the harvest, pray for the earth and our stewardship of it and always be mindful of the needs of others.

Every blessing

Mission Matters

Summer's over - What now?

For some of our Mission Partners, the summer months were a time in which to pause, pray and plan. For others, they were very busy indeed.

Lea and Petra, in the Czech Republic, were able to take a little time away prayerfully to think about their ministry in the city of Brno. They are praying for a new church building, suitable for their growing numbers. This Autumn, there will be changes, as some of the students who came to the church will have finished their university courses and left, and new ones will, they trust, join them there. Do pray with Lea and Petra that the developing life and outreach of their church will bring glory to Jesus.

For James Hawksworth, working as Church Army Evangelist in Ipswich, term has begun. He has a very worthwhile and enjoyable ministry to children at Sprites Primary School, especially coming alongside those who are struggling. In October, a new venture will begin - a Friday evening youth group for the children. James also has good input at Suffolk One, the local 6th form college, but as yet, has not been invited to go into Chantry Secondary Academy. Please pray that he will be allowed to work with the children there.

The Church Pastoral Aid Society had their usual busy Summer, as many young people aged 8 -18 enjoyed their Venture and Falcon holidays. There, there was the opportunity to have fun, make friends, take part in great activities - and, above all, to explore life with Jesus. Please pray that now, as these young people are back home and back to school or college, the Lord will continue to work in their lives, guiding them to those who can encourage, teach and support them, so that they may become life-long disciples of Jesus.

Sue, for the Mission Committee.

Belfry Gossip

Good news, the clock is again striking the hours because the new spring has been made and refitted.

The not so good news is that while ringing for the last wedding there was a loud bang on the floor above and only seven bells were then sounding instead of eight. The clapper shaft of the sixth bell had broken and the ball at the end had banged down onto the floor, this made the ringer directly below, jump, wondering what had happened. The clapper was later removed and taken to the bell foundry in Loughborough for a new one to be made. This is why we had a period of only five bells ringing for Service and practice. The new clapper should be in place by the time you are reading this.

During August we held our tower BBQ which had been postponed from July due to the poor weather. With our ringers and ringing friends who join us on practice nights this was a lovely event. Thank you Cathy and Simon for the use of your garden. Also during August we rang a quarter peal to celebrate Brenda's 60 years of ringing at St Mary's. Congratulations Brenda.

It being a time for BBQs the Wellingborough Branch also held one at Bozeat in August and about 28 members and friends from around the Branch were there. The light shower didn't spoil the evening. In September the Branch outing was held ringing at Wicken, Old Wolverton, Olney, Clifton Reynes and Emberton; about 30 ringers, including most of our ringers, went on this enjoyable day.

The Peterborough Guild recently held its Summer Festival and 8 bell striking competition. Three towers were available for ringing and the competition was held at Towcester. Five teams took part, Towcester branch team were placed first and the Wellingborough branch team, containing 4 Rushden ringers, were placed Third.

100 Years of the Peterborough Diocesan Guild of Church Bellringers

The Guild will have been in existence for 100 years in 2024. All ringers at Rushden are members of this Guild and many over the years have been, or are in, specific posts. Brenda was President and Alan Treasurer for 10 years, and Simon is now Guild Master and Cathy the PRO. To celebrate this occasion several events will be taking place around the Guild area and a 2024 Calendar has been produced showing towers around the diocese. The May picture is of Rushden church taken from the car park. If you would like one at a cost of £5 please see Brenda Dixon or the church office.

Summer Holiday Club

Our Summer Holiday club this year was called Guardians of Ancora, where we invited children to become guardians and help recover lost Bible story treasures to restore the light to the city of Ancora. To do this the children took part in quests; such as games, crafts and competitions to find the treasures, hear amazing stories told by Fabula and learn more about Jesus! They also followed the drama of two guardians called Swift and Dash as they went on their very first quest and learned what it meant to be a guardian along the way. We had over 30 sign up to holiday club this year, with lots of new faces of both children and leaders! We can't wait for the next one!
